Fall Tour Schedule

With the foliage working its way through the spectrum of autumnal colors and migration well underway as many birds wing their way south, it is time to join The Natural History Center on a fall adventure! Whether you are interested in one of our regularly scheduled tours or want a customized option, we have something for you.

REGULARLY SCHEDULED TOURS

Bird tours. Migration Mondays! Warbler Wednesdays! Flycatcher Fridays! Every day is bird day! These morning bird watching outings will take us around Bar Harbor, Acadia National Park, and Mount Desert Island to look for the diversity of birds. Whether a beginning birder or a serious lister, long-time ornithologist Rich MacDonald leads tours to local avian hotspots in pursuit of intriguing birds. 7:00-10:00 a.m. Mondays, Wednesday, and Fridays. $45 per adult, $15 per child (children must be accompanied by an adult).

Acadia Experience. Enjoy the rugged beauty of Acadia National Park and the Downeast Maine shoreline on a driving tour blending the natural history with the human. See magnificent scenic vistas, enjoy a short hike, and finish atop 1,530-foot Cadillac Mountain (our route may vary depending on the weather). 7:00-10:00 a.m. Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays. $45 per adult, $15 per child (children must be accompanied by an adult).

PRIVATE GUIDED CUSTOM NATURE & ADVENTURE TOURS

Interested in birds? Want to learn more about natural history? Perhaps you would rather take a walk on the Carriage Roads or hike a mountain. For a more intimate experience, consider a private tour through Acadia National Park and Downeast Maine. We work with you to develop a customized experience tailored to your interests. Since it is your tour, we can start any time and change the itinerary mid-tour if the desire arises. We can even pick you up at your inn, hotel, motel, or campground. Let us help begin developing your custom tour.

For all tours, call The Natural History Center at 207/801-2617. After business hours, call us at 207/266-9461.
